DGS Summer Institute: "Bits of Yesterday: Using Maps & Records to Complete Your Family Stor y" presented by Pamela Boyer Sayre (CG, CGL) and Richard L. Sayre (CG, CGL)

Pamela Boyer Sayre, CG[sm], CGL, has presented in more than thirty states. She is co-coordinator for two Salt Lake Institute of Genealogy courses (Researching in Washington, D.C., Without Leaving Home and All About Land), coordinator for Samford University's IGHR Techniques and Technology course, and former instructor in Boston University's Genealogical Research Program.

She co-authored Online Roots: How to Discover Your Family's History and Heritage with the Power of the Internet (Nashville, Tenn.: Rutledge Hill Press, 2003) and Research in Missouri (Washington, D.C.: NGS, 1999, 2007), penned the FGS FORUM's Digitools column for five years, and was editor of the Association of Professional Genealogists Quarterly.

Pamela was director of education and publications for the National Genealogical Society, and she served on the boards of both NGS and FGS.

Richard Sayre, CG[sm], CGL, is a longtime researcher, lecturer, and writer. His areas of interest include urban research methodology, mapping tools for genealogists, military records, immigration, the Ohio River Valley, and Western Pennsylvania, and he has lectured about these topics to genealogical societies across the United States.

He is co-coordinator for two Salt Lake Institute of Genealogy courses (Researching in Washington, D.C., Without Leaving Home and All About Land), coordinator for Samford's IGHR Land Mapping: Using Maps course, and he teaches in IGHR's Advanced Methodology, Advanced Military, and Techniques and Technology courses.

Rick is a member of the board of the Virginia Genealogical Society and a former vice president of the National Capital Area Chapter of APG.
