Provided below is a summary of the transcription projects that have been completed by the Dallas Genealogical Society. Go to the Store link for information on how to order copies of these materials.

- Microfiche acquisition, indexing and web page: more than 3500 sheets of microfilm have been added to the Dallas Public Library collection through this effort. See the Web Page for more information.

- Dallas County, Texas: Marriages Volume 1, Books A-E (1846-1877) (book and fiche)
- Dallas County, Texas: Marriages Volume 2, Books F-H (1877-1885) (book and fiche)
- Dallas County, Texas:Marriage Books I-K 1886-1889: Volume 3 (1 fiche)
- Dallas County, Texas:Marriage Books L-N 1890-1895: Volume 4 (1 fiche)
- Dallas County, Texas:Marriage Books O-Q 1896-1898: Volume 5 (1 fiche)
- Dallas County, Texas:Marriage Books R-S 1898-1899: Volume 6 (1 fiche)
- Dallas County, Texas: Genealogical Data from Early Volume 1: Cemeteries located in northern Dallas County, including Addison, Carrollton, Coppell, Farmers Branch, Garland, Richardson, Rowlett, Sachse, and Dallas (north of Northwest Highway).
- Dallas County, Texas: Genealogical Data from Early Volume 2: Cemeteries included are: Edgewood, Floyd- Taylor, Hutchins, Patrick-Pruitt, Porter, Rawlins, and Stadden.
- Dallas County, Texas: Genealogical Data from Early Volume 3: Covers 29 cemeteries located in Dallas, Irving, and Grand Prairie (the west and northwest portions of Dallas County). Includes Cochran Chapel, Western Heights, La Reunion, the Dallas City Cemetery, and many others.
- Dallas County, Texas: Genealogical Data from Early Volume 4: Contains interments in Oak Cliff cemetery.
- Dallas County, Texas: Genealogical Data from Early Volume 5: Covers the southwest quadrant of Dallas County and includes cemeteries in Oak Cliff, Cedar Hill, Duncanville, De Soto, and Lisbon.
- Dallas County, Texas Minute Book A, 1848-1855, 14th District Court Abstracts (1 fiche)
- Crawford Funeral Home Records (published in the DGS Journal)